

Hey, Apogaeans! Don't you just hate it when you get on-site and only then find out that there's a bring-your-own tuba concert, and you totally forgot to pack your tuba?! And now you gotta sit on the sidelines, watching all the other, better-prepared tuba-playing Apogaeans having all the tuba-tootin' fun?

I know we tell you to Bring All the Things, but here are a few extra things to throw into your car, based on WWWW events (list is by no means comprehensive. You should still Bring All the Things [including your tuba]):

- Musical instruments and drums to play at SoundPuddle, Improvisation and Voodoo @ Wizards' Camp, the Rhythm: Booty Telekinesis workshop, and at Burnin' to the Beat. Burnin' to the Beat can also translate any music you have with you (phone, MP3-player, Victrola, etc.) into FIRE!
- Camp Wardrobe MalFUNKtion will be accepting costume and clothing donations all weekend.
- Got any yummy ingredients you like on grilled cheese sandwiches? Share them with everyone at Grilled Cheese at Elkzilla Camp!
- Proclaim your more-Apogaea-ier-than thou-ness by getting your shirt/hat/jacket/purse/chones/etc. decorated with Apo-related stencils at Spray & Squirt @ HatBar
- Are you a connoisseur of fine whiskey/whisky? Bring some to share at Dr. Scotch's 5th Annual Scotch and Whiskey Happy Hour!
- Curious about deliveries via the back door? Bring your own toy and choice of lube to Everything Butt Stuff's Is Anal Right for You? workshop.
- The Bad Astronauts have some serious space-theme and black-light action going on—bring your space attire and UV-reactive clothing for their Rocket Launch and AfterBurn parties.
- Feeling more James Bond than John Glenn? Dress up in your best spy attire for the Moon Bass Martini Lounge!
- Or are you feeling gnome-y instead? Wear your Gnoman finest: togas, legionnaire battle dress, space aliens, and magical woodland critters will all meet up at the Gnome Hill Bacchanalia @ When in Gnome
- Have you picked up any neat stickers from your travels on earth and beyond? Leave your mark on the Octopussy mutant vehicle!
- Come dressed to impress in your (or your parents') best hip-hop and funky clothes at the Old Skool Hip Hop and Funk Party.
- Got some bling you wanna show off? Wear it to the Wizard Crunk-B-Q!
- Speaking of the 80s/90s—dig out that old Rubik's Cube for Rubik's Cube 101 (they'll have some if you can't find yours). Is it all sticky because of that one time you spilled Crystal Pepsi on it? They've got a Repair Shop to fix it for you!
- Saturday bring any red food to share at the The Ginger National Front' SPREAD THE RED Cheese and Grapes Potluck, Reception, Hazing, and Hobby Horse Races. Or just bring regular food that you've dyed red. Or just bring regular food.
- Do you have a beautiful—but unidentified—crystal you've been curious about? Bring it to the Magic of Crystals workshop at Wizards' Camp and they can help you figure out what it is!
- Last but not least, wear your very best "prom attire (as YOU interpret it!)" to Camp Wardrobe MalFUNKtion's Burner Prom on Saturday night! Prom King and Queen (not gender-specific) contestants will be judged on wardrobe and dance moves!
